

Through all of its policies, Wellstead Primary School aims to provide:

A caring, family ethos in which all children can flourish.

Excellent standards of teaching which enable all children to achieve their full potential.

A curriculum which builds enthusiasm for learning and equips children for the next stage of their education.

Wellstead Primary School Data Protection Policy

Wellstead Primary School collects and uses personal information (referred to in the Data Protection Act as personal data) about staff, pupils, parents and other individuals who come into contact with the school. This information is gathered in order to enable the provision of education and other associated functions. In addition, the school may be required by law to collect, use and share certain information.

The school is registered as a Data Controller, with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). Details are available on the ICO website.

The school issues a Privacy Notice to all pupils/parents, this summarises the information held on pupils, why it is held and the other organisations to whom it may be passed on to.

Purpose

This policy sets out how the school deals with personal information correctly and securely and in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998, and other related legislation.

This policy applies to all personal information however it is collected, used, recorded and stored and whether it is held on paper or electronically.

All school staff and governors involved with the collection, use, processing or disclosure of personal data will be aware of their duties and responsibilities and will adhere to this policy.

What is Personal Information / data?

Personal data is information, which relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data, or from that data in addition to other information available to them.

Personal data includes (but is not limited to)

- an individual's, name, address, telephone number
- date of birth / birth certificate
- photographs
- financial information
- national insurance details
- passport
- sensitive details such as religion, health records or ethnic origin

What is Sensitive Personal Data?

Sensitive personal data is identified separately in the Act because further conditions need to be applied before it can be used. Explicit consent from the person concerned is usually required before those details can be shared or passed to others in order to provide a particular service.

Of course there are times when our 'duty of care' or legal duty requires us to inform others, perhaps for example, following an assessment of identified risks relating to a specific individual. Sensitive personal data includes information as to an individual's racial or ethnic origin, their political opinions, religious beliefs or beliefs of a similar nature, whether they are a member of a trade union, their physical or mental health or condition, sexual life, the commission or alleged commission of an offence and any proceedings for an offence committed or alleged to have been committed by them, the disposal of those proceedings or the sentence of any court in such proceedings.

Data Protection Principles

The Act sets out terms and conditions for processing personal data.

- The 8 principles provide the framework of the legislation.
- The County Council has a Data Protection Policy, which requires staff to work according to the principles

Through all of its policies, Wellstead Primary School aims to provide:

A caring, family ethos in which all children can flourish.

Excellent standards of teaching which enable all children to achieve their full potential.

A curriculum which builds enthusiasm for learning and equips children for the next stage of their education.

- As an employee of Hampshire County Council you have the right to access your personal data, which is held for employment purposes. (This does not include information processed by you as part of your role at work)
- Speak to your manager or H.R. representative if you wish to see your own personal records and if your circumstances change, e.g. you move home, please ensure you notify your Manager in order to maintain accuracy of the information that we hold about you.

Eight Principles of the Data Protection Act

The Data Protection Act 1998 establishes eight principles that must be adhered to at all times:

1. Personal data shall be processed fairly and lawfully;
2. Personal data shall be obtained only for one or more specified and lawful purpose;
3. Personal data shall be adequate, relevant and not excessive;
4. Personal data shall be accurate and where necessary, kept up to date;
5. Personal data processed for any purpose shall not be kept for longer than necessary for that purpose or those purposes;
6. Personal data shall be processed in accordance with the rights of data subject under the Data Protection Act 1998;
7. Personal data shall be kept secure i.e. protected by an appropriate degree of security;
8. Personal data shall not be transferred to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, unless that country or territory ensures an adequate level of data protection.

Commitment

The school is committed to maintaining the above principles at all times. Therefore the school will:

- Inform individuals why personal information is being collected.
- Inform individuals when their information is shared, and why and with whom unless the Data Protection Act provides a reason not to do this.
- Obtain consent before processing Sensitive Personal Data, even if consent is implied within a relevant privacy notice, unless one of the other conditions for processing in the Data Protection Act applies.
- Check the accuracy of the information it holds and review it at regular intervals.
- Ensure that only authorised personnel have access to the personal information whatever medium (paper or electronic) it is stored in.
- Ensure that clear and robust safeguards are in place to ensure personal information is kept securely and to protect personal information from loss, theft and unauthorised disclosure, irrespective of the format in which it is recorded.
- Ensure that personal information is not retained longer than it is needed.
- Ensure that when information is destroyed that it is done so appropriately and securely.
- Share personal information with others only when it is legally appropriate to do so.
- Comply with the duty to respond to requests for access to personal information, known as Subject Access Requests.
- Ensure that personal information is not transferred outside the EEA without the appropriate safeguards
- Ensure all staff and governors are aware of and understand these policies and procedures.

Applying to see personal data

Subject Access Request (SAR)

- Members of the public requesting disclosure of their personal data held by the County Council must complete the relevant SAR form. This needs to be returned together with evidence of identification along with the £10 fee to the Data Protection Officer or the information processing team at Nuance Global House, Eastleigh, if records from Children's and Adults Services are being requested.
- Current staff are not required to pay the fee and can make an informal request through their manager or H.R. representative.

Through all of its policies, Wellstead Primary School aims to provide:

A caring, family ethos in which all children can flourish.

Excellent standards of teaching which enable all children to achieve their full potential.

A curriculum which builds enthusiasm for learning and equips children for the next stage of their education.

Complaints

Complaints will be dealt with in accordance with the school's complaints policy. Complaints relating to the handling of personal information may be referred to the Information Commissioner who can be contacted at Wycliffe House, Water Lane Wilmslow Cheshire SK9 5AF or at www.ico.gov.uk.

Review

This policy will be reviewed as it is deemed appropriate, but no less frequently than every two years. The policy review will be undertaken by the Headteacher, or nominated representative.

Contacts

If you have any enquires in relation to this policy, please contact the Head Teacher who will also act as the contact point for any subject access requests.
